Resolution Name: Resolution of Support for Colorado School of Mines Graduate Student Academic Rights and Responsibilities
Resolution Number: 2011.7
Resolution Date: 5 September 2011
Resolution Author: Zach Aman, GSA President

WHEREAS,
    Graduate student education, including both research and academic components, has become a significant focal point of the university; and

WHEREAS,
    Graduate students and faculty advisors share a relationship of mutual benefit, where shared respect and responsibility are essential to produce both cutting-edge research and a world-class graduate experience; and

WHEREAS,
    We recognize that graduate students are junior colleagues of the Faculty and, given their pursuit of an advanced degree and level of involvement in research activities, should accordingly work to establish a strong relationship with members of the Faculty and Administration;

THEREFORE,
The Graduate Student Association of the Colorado School of Mines stands

RESOLVED,
    TO SUPPORT THE INTENT AND TENETS OF THE “COLORADO SCHOOL OF MINES GRADUATE STUDENT ACADEMIC RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES.”
